This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE.

THIS catalogue contains the titles of nearly 40,000 volumes representing the stock of the Central Lending Library. The arrangement of the catalogue has been one of necessity rather than of choice, for whilst the Committee at first deemed the alphabetical or dictionary system the most suitable for such a popular library, it was found, upon calculation, that the production would be a volume of unwieldly proportions, and entail a considerable expenditure in the printing alone. A return to the classified catalogue was, therefore, adjudged inevitable, and whilst compressing the work to the limits of such a style of catalogue, to still give most of the advantages that the alphabetical catalogue possesses, with the only disadvantage of increased additional references to be made (in some cases) on the part of those consulting the catalogue. The main object has been to make the work as near as possible a perfect guide to the contents of the Library, not losing sight of the necessity of making such a guide at the same time simple and easily understood by the public.

The classification, though not ideal nor yet even a scientific one, is the scheme originally adopted in the Library, and the complicated undertaking of re-arranging the entire library to adopt one of the more modern systems of classification was for the present believed to be inexpedient.

By the addition of the extensive index of authors, and the preliminary index of subjects, simplicity of consultation it is thought has been secured.

The abbreviations used throughout the catalogue are not only few, but of the simplest and most generally understood character, such as v. for volume or volumes; trans. for translator or translated; ed. for editor or edited, &c.

It has been deemed desirable to add in a somewhat new form, a selection from the more important and most useful practical works in the Reference Department of the Library on certain subjects throughout the catalogue, and thus more conspicuously direct attention to the riches of this section of the Library, which naturally includes the more valuable works on many subjects, particularly in the divisions treating of the fine arts and topography.

It should not be forgotten, however, that the Reference Department is of the greatest alue to those seeking out-of-the-way information; and should always be known as a collection of books supplementing and extending the works in the lending or circulating department.

It has not been thought necessary to give to any large extent details, or set out contents, of the many collectaneous works in the Library, and in this way expand the catalogue to unreasonable bounds. The contents of such works may easily be made available by consulting the admirable A. L. A. Index to General Literature. This is one of those supplementary keys to unlocking the sources of information in the Library, which with the indispensable works,

Poole and Fletcher's Indexes to Periodical Literature,
The Review of Reviews Indexes,
The Annual Literary Index, and the Dictionary of National Biography, should never be overlooked.

Readers or borrowers experiencing any difficulty in their search for particular books, in obtaining information on special questions, or in any way failing to find the Library of that service to them that it might reasonably be expected to be, are specially desired to invite the assistance of the Librarian or any of his staff of assistants, who are at all times available for such aid.

JOHN PENNOCK,
CHAIRMAN.

WILLIAM MAY,
LIBRARIAN.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

LENDING DEPARTMENT.

1.—The Library shall be open to the public every day, excepting Sundays, holidays, and such other days, as the Library Committee may direct, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., with the exception of Saturdays, when the building is closed at 6 p.m. for cleaning.

2.—Persons desirous of obtaining a borrower's card shall deposit with the Librarian a guarantee form, properly filled up, and with the signatures of two ratepayers of the borough as guarantors. Printed forms to be had on application at the Library.

3.—Two days at least must elapse between depositing the guarantee form and the issue of the borrower's card, which will be issued to the borrower in person only.

4.—The borrower on receipt of the card shall insert his or her name, address, &c., in the Signature Book provided for that purpose, such signature being considered as given in assent to these Rules and Regulations.

5.—The borrower shall renew his or her card of membership every twelve months from the date specified upon it, otherwise the card will be cancelled, and a new voucher form required, as on the first application.

6.—A borrower may have only one book at a time from the Library, except with the permission of the Librarian, such exception to be made under special circumstances only. Novels in more than one volume are not included in this prohibition.

7.—On every application for a book, the borrower shall produce his or her card of membership, and no book will be issued to borrowers neglecting to comply with this Rule.

8.—Books will be delivered to, and should be returned by, borrowers in the order they enter the Library. When borrowers cannot conveniently change their books personally, they are required to send responsible messengers, competent to deliver messages and take proper care of the books.

9.—Books may be exchanged daily, but no book will be changed on the same day it was issued.

10.—The borrower, or in default his or her guarantor, shall be liable to a fine of one penny per day, for each day the book lent is kept beyond the time specified on the Library labels inside the books.

11.—The time for which a book is lent may be renewed on the expiration of that time, excepting when the book has been applied for by another borrower.

12.—Borrowers returning their books must not leave them on the counter, or give them into the hands of other borrowers, but deliver them to the Librarian, or one of his assistants. The borrower will be held responsible for any loss occasioned by a breach of this Rule.

13.—Borrowers must report, at the earliest opportunity, any damage or injury to the Library books they receive, otherwise they will be held accountable for the estimated value of the same.

14.—Borrowers are cautioned against allowing books to get wet, as they will render themselves liable to a fine of the cost of re-binding.

15.—The Librarian, or one of his assistants, shall carefully examine each book returned; and if the same be soiled, written in, marked, or otherwise injured, the borrower (or his or her guarantor) must replace such book, or set of books, to which it may belong, or pay for the damage according to the estimate of the Librarian.

16 —Borrowers are required to give notice in writing to the Librarian of any change of their address, or that of their guarantors, within ten days of such change.

17.—Borrowers losing their tickets must give immediate notice in writing to the Librarian, as they and their guarantors will be held responsible for any books which may be borrowed upon the production of their ticket.

18.—Borrowers and their guarantors will be held responsible for all books taken out of the Library, by the improper use of their cards by other persons, and cards so improperly used will be liable to withdrawal.

19.—No person shall have power to take any book from the Library shelves, or enter any portion of the Library premises other than is devoted to the public generally, without permission of the Librarian.

20.—The Librarian shall have power to suspend or cancel the ticket of any borrower who shall neglect to comply with any of these Rules and Regulations, such person having the right of appeal to the Library Committee.

NOTES TO READERS.

The classes in the Library are arranged as follows, and are represented by Class-letters A to O :—

Class A—Theology, Morals and Metaphysics	pages 17— 47.
,, B—Natural philosophy, Mathematics, Medicine and Physiology	,, 48— 64.
,, C—Natural history	,, 65— 81.
,, D—Science and the Arts	,, 82—115.
,, E—History and Biography	,, 116—183.
,, F—Topography and Antiquities	,, 184—197.
,, G—Geography, Voyages and Travels	,, 198—228.
,, H—Miscellaneous literature	,, 229—249.
,, I—Law, Politics, Social science, Political and Social economy	,, 250—268.
,, K—Latin and Greek classics and Classical literature	,, 269—274.
,, L—Education, Languages, Logic, Rhetoric, &c...	,, 275—283.
,, M—Poetry and the Drama	,, 284 - 300.
,, N—Prose Fiction (Novels)	,, 301 - 382.
,, O—Books for the Young	,, 383—429.

With the aid of the subject index prefixed to the catalogue, it ought not to be difficult to trace the books on any subject.

Borrowers should prepare a list of from twelve to twenty books, arranged in the order desired, with the class-letter and number attached, and also place at the head of their list, his or her name and Library ticket number, as for example :—

William Jackson, No. 1351.

Rankine. Civil Engineering	D 664.
Thearle. Naval Architecture...	D 1608.
Life of John Mytton	E 1229.
The Gladiators...	N 852.

Readers should be careful to strike out of their lists those books they have read.

Suggestions from readers regarding the acquisition of desirable books not already in the Library, may be entered in a Readers' Proposal book, provided for that purpose, and will be duly submitted to the Library Committee.

Arrangements are made by which borrowers at either of the Branch Libraries who wish to obtain any particular work from the Central Library, not in the stock of the branches, may have that book transferred to the branch it is wanted for, for the time it is required.

TOPOGRAPHY AND ANTIQUITIES.

SECTION 1.—TOPOGRAPHY.
SECTION 2.—ANTIQUITIES (INCLUDING COSTUME, FOLKLORE, HERALDRY, MYTHOLOGY, NUMISMATICS, &c.).

Section 1.—Topography.

The Reference Department of the Library is specially rich in works under this section; almost every portion of the British Isles being represented by some work. The few works from the Reference Department appearing here refer merely to the district locally, and represent only a selection from the extensive collection of local literature.
